Charles Born, the mining man of the Black Rock district, came up on this morning's train.

Dr. W. S. Smith has been compelled to go to Los Angeles recently to receive treatment for his eyes.
Mrs. R. A. Talbot has gone to the Iron King mine for a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Henry.

The Verde valley was visited recently by a thunder storm. Considerable rain and some hail fell.
U. S. District Attorney Nare, who has been in this city for several days, will leave for Tucson tonight.

C. H. McLane's hand is improving today and it is now hoped he will have no further trouble with it.
Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Smith returned last evening from escorting the eastern excursionists to the Grand Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Millard entertained a number of friends at their residence in East Prescott last evening.
The next meeting of the Prescott C. T. U. will be held with Mrs. Talbot, corner Gurley and Pleasant streets, Monday, May 18.

Tomorrow will be excursion day and a number of Prescott people will take advantage of the excursion to go to the coast for an outing.
Mrs. Rabble, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Malott Fletcher, in Indianapolis, will return to Prescott May 18.

Mrs. Herring, wife of Colonel William Herring, died at their home a few days since in Tucson. She had been an invalid for several years.
Judge McLean is nursing a blood poisoned hand. He received a small scratch on his hand some time since, from which blood poison has developed.

Hugo Johnstone, the New York millionaire interested in the Sultan mine, arrived from the east on this morning's train and will leave for the mine tomorrow.
H. P. Ansell left on yesterday's train for San Francisco for a conference with the general agents of the coast lines of railroads on rates. He expects to return to Prescott on Saturday.

Miss Annie Evans, of Phoenix, was a passenger on this morning's train en route west. She was at the depot with a number of her Prescott friends for a visit during the time the train remained here.
Yesterday's tea given by the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church was an occasion of more than ordinary pleasure to all who attended. It was a social one entirely, and there was a large attendance, and from now on they intend to give the tea more frequently.

Miss Bessie Belle Thew who has been discharging the society news of Prescott for some time for a Prescott paper, has resigned her position and will return to her former profession, that of an elocutionist. She will go to Los Angeles next Monday and will locate in that city.
Chief of Police Prince says he is going to begin a war of extermination against unlicensed canines, and from now on all dogs found in the city without this year's tags, indicating that the tax is paid on them, will be shot. If you have a pet dog whom you wish to save from the dog catcher, pay your dog tax at once.

A private wedding took place at the M. E. parsonage yesterday evening. The ceremony being performed by Rev. Gibbons, which united in matrimony the young couple, Geo. A. Miller and Miss Carrie Conkling, both of Whipple Barrecks. The groom is the bugler in company B of the 12th regiment stationed at Whipple.

The Mexican who claimed he had been robbed yesterday morning was searched last night and $45 in gold was found in his left hand fold pocket which indicated that his claim of having been robbed was rather thin. It looked like he and his partner had been fighting, and accordingly Judge McLane fined each of them $10 which they paid and were released.

Major and Mrs. J. M. Watts celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their marriage last evening at their residence and entertained a large company of their friends. The Journal-Miner was among the first to congratulate and welcome the couple on their marriage and arrival here a dozen years ago and again renews its good wishes for their success.

R. B. Metcalf, jr., son of R. B. Metcalf, one of the early Arizona pioneers, is visiting Prescott. Mr. Metcalf, sr., was a partner of Judge N. L. Griffin, of Prescott, in the early days around Globe and other places in the territory. The town of Metcalf was named after him. He left the territory about twenty years ago and has been a resident of Lexington, Kentucky, ever since. R. B. Metcalf, jr., has been residing in Tucson for about a year, and came to Prescott to visit a friend. He will leave tomorrow for his home in Lexington, Kentucky.

Frank Pallian left today for San Francisco where he will take instructions in the operation and care of automobiles, so that when his elegant Thomas tonneau car arrives he will be able to operate it to the best advantage and with perfect safety. The car will arrive about the first of June about the time he returns from the city, and will be put into commission at once. The car will have a capacity of four passengers beside the chauffeur, and will undoubtedly be a big hit in the way of furnishing a means of local transportation, hauling picnic parties, etc.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Allen, which has been very ill at Ash Fork for several days, of summer complaint, died last night and will be buried this afternoon.
Dr. Sawyer, of Prescott, went to Ash Fork yesterday to consult with the physician who has been attending the little sufferer, and they did every thing within human power to save the child but the little flower just as it was budding into sweet happy childhood. The members of the Prescott Lodge of Eagles and a number of other friends of the bereaved parents in this city, sent beautiful floral offerings up on this morning's train.

The May number of 10 Story Book is a model issue of a short story magazine. An unusual strong list of authors contribute. Opie Reed, who is at present so much in the public eye, leads with a sketch entitled "The Man and the Mummy." It is a quaint piece of humor, involving a most profound psychic proposition which gives Mr. Reed ample opportunity for a play of his wit. A prize story by Howard Ornday Hilton is a political nature and shows the writer's familiarity with the inside workings of the game. The masterpiece of the month is "Diamond cut Diamond," a gambling episode in the career of Hon. Mr. Deuceba by William Makepeace Thackeray.

Editor D. D. McDonald, of the Herald, left this morning for Los Angeles on mining business, and incidentally to be present and take part in the three days' shooting tournament to be held at Ocean Park under the auspices of the Ocean Park Country Club. The tournament will open Friday and close Sunday next. The championship of the Pacific coast will be contested for besides money prizes amounting to over $200 and the tournament promises to be one of the greatest held in that state for many years. Mr. McDonald will be accompanied by his wife and daughter, for Mrs. McDonald's sister Mrs. Lisle, for several weeks.

The Journal-Miner is in receipt of a notice announcing the marriage, in San Francisco, of Miss Evelyn Cook and Leiland Dale. The bride is of one of San Francisco's prominent families while the groom is the youngest son of E. C. Dale, the veteran advertising agent of that city.
R. B. Metcalf, jr., son of R. B. Metcalf, one of the early Arizona pioneers, is visiting Prescott. Mr. Metcalf, sr., was a partner of Judge N. L. Griffin, of Prescott, in the early days around Globe and other places in the territory. The town of Metcalf was named after him. He left the territory about twenty years ago and has been a resident of Lexington, Kentucky, ever since. R. B. Metcalf, jr., has been residing in Tucson for about a year, and came to Prescott to visit a friend. He will leave tomorrow for his home in Lexington, Kentucky.

failure. Judge Fitzgerald entered the confederate army as a private at the age of fifteen years and at the close of the war had risen to the rank of major. After the war closed he became an aviator and returned to the territory from the bench in Arizona. He located in Los Angeles and was at one time attorney general of California.

W. E. Blair arrived here recently from Champaign, Illinois, with a view of remaining here permanently. He is connected with the New York Life Insurance company. Mr. Blair is accompanied by his wife and they have taken up their residence at 297 East Union street. Both Mr. Blair and his wife are in love with Prescott.

Gus Koppe, the well known blacksmith and wagon maker, of Martinez, was tried before Probate Judge Hicks this afternoon on a charge of insanity, but was discharged. The evidence showed that he had been drinking heavily for some time and had acted in a strange manner, but the witnesses thought he was simply the result of his drinking, and not a case of insanity.

A quiet wedding will take place at the Congress House at 7:30 this evening the happy couple to the occasion being Jay Burleson and Miss Eva Schoenhaus. The groom is an employee at the great Iron King mine near Verde, and the bride is one of the Salt River valley's charming young ladies. Her home being at Tempe. She has been staying at the Iron King camp for some time and it was here the happy pair met and fell victims before Cupid's darts. They will make their future home in that prosperous and growing camp.

Private car number 230 of the Santa Fe road, occupied by Directors C. S. Gleed and H. R. Duval, returned from Phoenix yesterday. It was attached to this morning's north bound train, the occupants accompanied by J. H. Emmert and Chief Engineer W. A. Drake, of the S. F. P. and P. road being en route to Jerome. F. M. Murphy who accompanied the party to Phoenix continued his trip to Tombstone, and will not return for several days.

Dr. Louis Metzgar, United States inspector of the bureau of Animal Industry, at Albuquerque, left on this morning's train for Ash Fork, Flagstaff and other points on the line of the Santa Fe railroad. Dr. Metzgar has just completed the inspection of a lot of sheep at Mayer which are being shipped to Chicago. In conversation with a Journal-Miner representative today he said that Arizona sheep are in prime condition and in the eastern market are considered superior to sheep from any other part in the south west. They are not only free from disease but they are extra fat and command a higher price than those from any other section.

Mrs. Ira Tutt, the lady who has been promoting the Santa Fe road proposition, and who has been very sick in Los Angeles for several weeks, has recovered sufficiently to travel and is expected to arrive in Prescott tonight and will rush the work of putting in the plant from the freight house to the plant. The heavy machinery for the plant can be hauled to the plant sites. The plant is to be located in the neighborhood of $30,000. There are quite a number of mining people that are only waiting for this plant to start up to install machinery for developing their property.

U. S. District Attorney Frederick Nare and U. S. Deputy Marshal C. H. Utting were unable to leave for the south as they expected to do last night on account of the hearing of two Chinese cases which were heard this morning before U. S. Commissioner J. C. Forest. The names of the Chinese under arrest for being in this country without a certificate, were Joe Jim and Wong Chung and they were given until June 1 to prepare their defense. Messrs. Nare and Utting came down from Kingman Tuesday night when they went in the case of ex-Indian Agent Henry P. Ewing, who had been arrested on a charge of rendering a false account to the government. He had his hearing before U. S. Commissioner J. W. G. Blakely, and was bound over to appear before the grand jury. They also brought with them a Chinese by the name of Ah Fat who had been arrested at Globe but who had appealed the case which will be heard before Judge Sloan at the next session of court.

From Friday's Daily.

S. J. Wright, of Paris, Texas, who has extensive mining interests in this section, arrived this morning for a visit of a couple of weeks here.
Providence had a fire at an early hour on Thursday morning in which three or four buildings were burned. It was with considerable effort that the flames were prevented from spreading and becoming more disastrous.

The Santa Fe directors' car, with Directors C. S. Gleed and H. R. Duval and the latter's son aboard, returned last night from Jerome Junction and was attached to this morning's north bound train en route to California.
Dr. Swikenth of the German Optical Institute of Phoenix returned to Prescott last night after spending several days at Jerome. He will remain here till tomorrow night when he will return to his office in Phoenix.

P. L. Goodhue and wife arrived in Prescott last evening and are guests at Hotel Congress. Mr. Goodhue is the representative of the Western Electric Roofing company, of Denver.
Dan Ashmann, representing a large insurance firm of St. Joseph, Mo., has been taking orders from our merchants for a day or two, and reports business fine and Prescott one of the best towns on the road.

Robert Matthews, who has been an employee of the B. B. Co. for some time, has been compelled to resign his position with that firm on account of ill health, and will go out to the King stock ranch where he hopes to be benefited by the outdoor vigorous life of a stock man.

Charles M. Kurtz, assistant chief of the department of Art at the World's Fair, St. Louis, 1904, has prepared for the May Criterion an authoritative comprehensive article, handsomely illustrated by new and special photographs, entitled, "The Louisiana Purchase Exposition and Its Art Department."
Mr. Durbin, a carpenter, while at work last evening at the residence of Geo. Wood, met with a very painful accident. He was on a ladder, at work, only three rungs from the ground, when the rung of the ladder broke precipitating him just above the wrist. The broken bone protruded through the flesh.

A special train was sent to Phoenix this morning immediately after the arrival of the passenger train from there. The engine and coach which were sent for use in an excursion train which will run from Phoenix to Iron Springs tomorrow. On account of the heavy freight traffic on the road at present six car loads of through freight were sent down by this train.

The aged mother of Messrs. Ben and James Blanchard of Iron King, accompanied by the former's daughter, Miss Nellie Blanchard, arrived in Prescott this morning. They reached Ash Fork at 11:30 last night, on the Santa Fe train, where they were met by Ben Blanchard with a special train and brought to Prescott. They left this afternoon for the Iron King mines, where they will remain for several weeks.

Ed Schumate today informed the Journal-Miner that he would be ready to open the season at Granite Dells next Sunday. Although everything will not be as complete as he hopes to have it in a few more days yet he will be able to receive the visitors in the best manner possible. All who know Mr. Schumate and his manner of doing business know that he will be satisfied with nothing short of the best and the season this year at Granite Dells promises to be far ahead of any previous year, as several hundred dollars have been spent in getting things up, and the season will be run in a first class manner.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Bashford-Burnister company, D. M. F. Weeks tendered his resignation as president effective June 1. Mr. Weeks retired from the head of this concern with the best of feeling and good wishes of his associates, and is making his home solely for private reasons, and for the purpose of seeking some lower altitude believing that such change would be beneficial to his health. James A. Hope, who is now first vice president, will succeed to the duties of the president, and he needs no particular introduction to the people of this section, as he has been actively identified with the management for the past two or three years, and is qualified to fill the position in every sense of the word.

DISASTROUS WEEKS.
Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery, the human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles, can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Crane of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. She writes: "I was afflicted by all throat and lung diseases by all druggists. Price, 50c, and $1. Trial bottles free."

CARD OF THANKS.
We hereby extend our heartfelt thanks to the many kind and sympathetic friends who assisted us in the hour of our distress and in the death of our father, Fritz Jensen.
Jessen Brothers.

THE WASTES OF THE BODY.
Every seven days the blood, muscle, skin and bones of the human body lose two pounds of worn-out tissue. This waste cannot be replenished unless the blood and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the blood is let down, health is lost and disease sets up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of food that rebuilds the tissues and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold by Briskley Drug Co., Corbin & Bork.

Messrs. Kinney & Zinnecker, recently of Denver, have purchased the Hotel Burke barber shop. First class work and patronage solicited. Give them a trial.
